

Experience: Mr. Ahmad has 28 years of experience in office management working in a variety of settings from big corporations to small office, government entities to non-profit and private enterprises. He is one of the founding partners of Senior Wellness Center and a big proponent of Telemedicine. He is currently serving as the office manager, members relations manager and information technology engineer.

Education: Mr. Ahmad received his B.Sc. in Engineering from the University of Baghdad then received his M.Sc. in Computer engineering from the Concordia University, Montreal/Canada. He also studied economics and management at Mission College in Santa Clara.

Involvement: Mr. Ahmad has non-profit experience and charity work under his belt. He is the founder of USPAPAYA (www.uspapaya.org) since 2011

Breadth: Mr. Ahmad worked in the fields of theoretical physics, engineering design, customer relations, information technology, and property management.